SoL Publishing & Membership

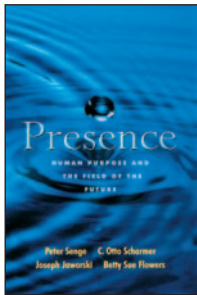

SoL's publishing program documents and disseminates new knowledge that supports SoL's principles and mission. The Connections membership program is designed to engage people who want to develop their capacity to create organizations and communities worthy of their members' commitment.

Hardbound, 289 pages.
ISBN: 038551624X

Presence: An Exploration of Profound Change in People, Organizations, and Society

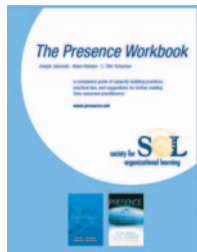

In wide-ranging conversations held over a year and a half, organizational learning pioneers Peter Senge, C. Otto Scharmer, Joseph Jaworski, and Betty Sue Flowers explored the nature of transformational change—how it arises, and the fresh possibilities it offers a world dangerously out of balance.

Hardbound, 304 pages.
ISBN 0-9742390-1-1

Presence: Human Purpose and the Field of the Future

This is the original SoL edition of Presence, conceived as a short-run limited edition book. Presence: An Exploration of Profound Change in People, Organizations, and Society was published by Doubleday with a SoL imprint in order to respond to a need for wider distribution through more traditional channels. The differences between the two books are minor. For more information visit www.presence.net

Available as a PDF file only.

The Presence Workbook

The Presence Workbook is a downloadable companion guide to Presence. It includes capacity-building practices, practical tips, and suggestions for further reading from seasoned practitioners. This 40-page workbook is available as a PDF file only. Download The Presence Workbook for free when you order Presence through SoL.

Available as a PDF file only.

The Reflections Presence Collection

The Reflections Collection is a downloadable collection of articles cited in Presence and originally published in Reflections: The SoL Journal.

For a complete list of articles, please visit <http://store-solonline.org/downloads.htm>

Paperback, 464 pages.
ISBN: 0385517254

The Fifth Discipline (Revised edition)

This revised edition of the best-selling classic by Peter Senge is based on 15 years of experience in putting the five disciplines into practice. With more than 100 pages of new material based on interviews with many SoL members and practitioners, the book is a must for any learning organization library. Access reader resources at www.solonline.org/FifthDiscipline/

Paperback, 110 pages.
ISBN 0-9742390-2-X

Learning for Sustainability

Peter Senge, Joe Laur, Sara Schley and Bryan Smith. Featuring the work of a number of members of the SoL Sustainability Consortium, this new SoL resource was written as a vehicle for sparking conversation and encouraging dialogue about how to develop the confidence and capabilities to create a world we will be proud to leave our grandchildren. The collection of twelve articles and exercises is based on The Fifth Discipline Fieldbook format. For more information visit www.solonline.org/lfs/

Paperback, 220 pages.

Reflections Volume 5 & 6 Compilations

The two hard copy compilations, Reflections Volumes 5 & 6 include feature articles from 2004 and 2005, Emerging Knowledge Forum articles, and book excerpts. Each feature is accompanied by commentaries from knowledgeable practitioners, researchers, or academics. Learn more about Reflections at www.solonline.org/reflections/

Complete Set of Reflections Back Issues

This beautiful collection includes all 16 issues in Volumes 1-4, published in conjunction with MIT and the Volume 5 Compilation published by SoL.

A portion of the net proceeds of SoL publishing sales support basic research, leading-edge applied learning projects, and building a global network of learning communities.
